

FMAC Mediation Training Reference List 2021

18.04 APPOINTMENT AND QUALIFICATION OF MEDIATOR

(c) Continuing Education. A mediator shall participate in six hours of continuing education every two years from programs approved by the 22nd Judicial Circuit's Family Mediation Advisory Council. A mediator shall report and verify his or her attendance at approved continuing education to the 22nd Judicial Circuit's Family Mediation Advisory Council.

A mediator is personally responsible for ongoing professional growth. A mediator is encouraged to join with other mediators and members of related professions to promote mutual professional development.

The following organizations provide training which includes studies of family conflict resolution, human development, domestic violence awareness, child abuse, ethics, virtual family mediation, family mediation practice, diversity, inclusion, gender bias, personality development, and interpersonal relationships. You may choose a seminar/webinar from these or any venue (such as ISBA, the McHenry County Bar Association, the Collaborative Law Institute of Illinois) that falls into the above-referenced categories.

Mediate University

<https://www.mediateuniversity.com/collections?category=family-divorce>

Mediation Training & Consultation Institute

<https://www.learn2mediate.com>

<https://www.learn2mediate.com/mediation-training-store/>

High Conflict Institute

<https://www.highconflicttraining.com/continuing-legal-education-courses>

<https://www.highconflicttraining.com/new-ways-training>

Association of Family & Conciliation Courts

<https://www.afccnet.org/Resource-Center/Resources-for-Professionals>

<https://www.afccnet.org/Member-Center/Webinar-Archives>

Northwestern University

<https://sps.northwestern.edu/professional-development/divorce-mediation/index.php>

Contact person: Margaret S. Powers, LCSW (847) 398-1969

Aenzi, LLC Behavioral Science Services

<https://www.aenzi.com/mediation-training.html>

22nd Judicial Circuit Family Mediation Advisory Council

The Family Mediation Advisory Council sponsors seminars approved for continuing education.